MOTION FOR LEAVE TO CORRECT/AMEND PLAINTIFF JOE ANDREW SALAZAR'S SECOND AMENDED ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Rule 15 of the Federal Rules for Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Joe Andrew Salazar (“Salazar” or “Plaintiff”) moves for leave to file a corrected complaint in the above captioned matter or, in the alternative, to amend his complaint. Plaintiff filed his Second Amended Original Complaint against Defendants HTC Corporation (“HTC”) and AT&T, Inc. (“AT&T”) on June 15, 2017 asserting claims of patent infringement. Plaintiff’s Second Amended Complaint added AT&T, Inc. as a Defendant.¹ Since filing his Second Amended Original Complaint, Plaintiff has learned that the correct defendant AT&T corporate entity is AT&T Mobility LLC (“AT&T Mobility”), a subsidiary of AT&T, Inc. Upon further research of AT&T’s court filings, Plaintiff located a declaration by a representative of AT&T who represented that its subsidiary, AT&T Mobility is the AT&T entity directly involved in offering for sale and selling smartphones and tablets. AT&T’s legal counsel confirmed that the accused ¹ The Plaintiff has also made a few typographical corrections in the proposed amended pleading and edits to ¶¶ 6 and 13.

HTC products were offered for sale and sold by AT&T's entity AT&T Mobility. See Declaration of Dariush Keyhani at ¶¶ 2-3 (July 14, 2017). Plaintiff seeks to correct his complaint by substituting AT&T with AT&T Mobility.²

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(c)(1) “governs when an amended pleading ‘relates back’ to the date of a timely filed original pleading and is thus itself timely.” Krupski v. Costa Crociere S.p.A., ____ U.S. ____, 130 S.Ct. 2485, 2489 (2010). Under Rule 15(c)(1)(C), an amendment to a pleading relates back to the date of the original pleading when the amendment changes the party or the naming of the party against whom a claim is asserted, if Rule 15(c)(1)(B)³ is satisfied and if, within the period provided by Rule 4(m) for serving the summons and complaint, the party to be brought in by amendment: (i) received such notice of the action that it will not be prejudiced in defending on the merits; and (ii) knew or should have known that the action would have been brought against it, but for a mistake concerning the proper party's identity.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a) provides that “[t]he court should freely give leave [to amend] when justice so requires.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2). The United States Supreme Court has interpreted Rule 15(a) and confirmed the liberal standard district courts must apply when granting such leave. In Foman v. Davis, the Supreme Court explained:

In the absence of any apparent or declared reason—such as undue delay, bad faith or dilatory motive on the part of the movant, repeated failure to cure deficiencies by amendments previously allowed, undue prejudice to the opposing party by virtue of allowance of the amendment, futility of the amendment, etc.—the leave sought should, as the rules require, be “freely given.”

³ Rule 15(c)(1)(B) states “the amendment asserts a claim or defense that arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set out—or attempted to be set out—in the original pleading.”

Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Plaintiff meets the standard to correct the Defendant corporate entity.

This case satisfies Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(c)(1). First, the amendment asserts a claim or defense that arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set out-or attempted to be set out—in the original pleading. The assertions against AT&T Mobility are identical to those asserted in Plaintiff’s Second Amended Original Complaint against AT&T. Second, AT&T Mobility received notice of this action at the same time AT&T did and it will not be prejudiced in defending this case. AT&T Mobility received notice through AT&T’s counsel⁴ and given the early stage of this case there would be no prejudice. See, e.g., G.F. Co. v. Pan Ocean Shipping Co., Ltd., 23 F.3d 1498, 1502-1503 (9th Cir. 1994) (“[n]otice to a named defendant will be imputed to an unnamed defendant where there is a “community of interest” between the parties). Further, AT&T Mobility knew or should have known that it was the intended entity as it is responsible for selling and offering for sale HTC’s smartphone products, as Plaintiff alleges in his complaint. See Keyhani Decl. at ¶3 (AT&T’s counsel confirmed that with respect to the claims in this action AT&T Mobility is the correct defendant entity). Further, the 90-day time limit for serving AT&T Mobility under Rule 4(m) has not expired as the amended pleading including AT&T, Inc. was filed on June 15, 2017 and Plaintiff consented to a 45-day extension for AT&T to answer or otherwise respond to this pleading. See Keyhani Decl. at ¶3. Accordingly, as Rule 15(c)(1) is satisfied, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant him leave to file Plaintiff's corrected Second Amended Original Complaint to substitute AT&T with its subsidiary AT&T Mobility and for this pleading to relate back to June 15, 2017 when Plaintiff's Second Amended Original Complaint was filed.

⁴ It is understood that all the AT&T corporate entities share a central in-house legal and intellectual property legal department.

Alternatively, if the Court does not deem the substitution of the AT&T defendant entity (relating back to June 15, 2017) appropriate in this case, Plaintiff respectfully requests leave to file the proposed corrected Second Amended Original Complaint.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the foregoing Motion for Leave to Correct/Amend Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint be granted and for such other relief as the Court deems suitable and just.
